SETTLEMENT OF ARMENIAN ISSUE

United States Will be Offered Mandate Over Country

TO FIX THE BOUNDARY

England Obtains Number of Plums in Final Division of Spoils of War. Council to Settle Adriatic.

San Remo, April 26.—The Supreme Council is sending a formal request to President Wilson that the United States Government take the mandate for Armenia.

The council is leaving to President Wilson the arbitration of the differences over the boundaries of Armenia.

There seems to be division on the part of the council as to whether the region of Erzerum and its vicinity should be included in the territory of the Armenian republic. The Turkish Nationalists are strongly claiming Erzerum for themselves.

The council awarded a mandate for Mesopotamia and Palestine to Great Britain and a mandate for Syria to France.

The Adriatic question will be settled by the San Remo Council in accord with President Wilson's note, the Italian Premier, Francesco Nitti, told the correspondent.

"Will the Adriatic question be settled by this council?" the correspondent asked.

"Yes," he replied.

"Is the settlement in accord with President Wilsons note?" continued the correspondent.

"Yes", Premier Nitti said.

Through the Turkish treaty Great Britain gets:

First—Palestine.

Second—Mesopotamia.

Third—Caucasus, with the ports of Batum and Baku.

Fourth—The Bagdad Railway.

Fifth—Control of the Dardanelles.

Sixth—Sole rights to the Suez Canal through control of Egypt and the Turk recognition of the protectorate.

Seventh—Protection of the Mussulman Empire through maintaining King Hodjaz of Arabia.

When completed the property will cover a city block, which will make three full blocks for [illegible]

Approximately 400 employees will be added to the pay roll of the company when the new unit is completed

SPORTS

The Dreadnaught Athletic Club defeated the strong Selective Service team of Washington Barracks on the grounds of the Alexandria High School yesterday afternoon by a score of 4 to 2 in one of the best and fastest played games seen in Alexandria in many years.

Jimmy Quayle the Dreadnaughts crack pitcher was robbed of a no-hit game in the ninth inning when after two were out and a no-hit game was in sight for Alexandria's pitching pride, Manager Malone of the Selective Service team made the one and only hit of the game a Texas leaguer over the short stop's head, which came very close to being caught by the centerfielder, Giles of the Dreadnaughts. The score stood 2 to 1 against the home team until the seventh inning when after Leon Deavers bounced a hit off an automobile standing in the field, which prevented him from making three bases instead of two by his effort.

The score by innings:

Selective Service .. 0 0 0 1 1 0 0 0 0
D. A. C. ..... 1 0 0 0 0 0 2 1 x

Time 1 hour and 25 minutes. Umpire, Tullock, Swan. Scorer, Hantzman.

The strong Gibraltar Athletic Club baseball nine, of Washington, were defeated by the Cardinal Athletic Club baseball team on the North Alfred street grounds yesterday, by the score: Cardinals, 13; Gibraltars, 7.

"Speedboy" Jones was on the firing line for the Cardinals, and he pitched a great game, striking out thirteen of the Gibraltars and allowing his rivals but three hits.

"Teddy" Schaffer was the live wire lad behind the bat and he supported his battery mate in grand style and made two hits and two runs for his afternoons work.

Larry McLean, star second sacker, carried off the batting honors for the day, making three hits out of four times up. George Allensworth, Alexander, Sweeney, Strunkle, Payne, Peverill, and "Toodles" Owens played their positions in big league style and hit the ball hard when hits meant runs.

For the Gibraltars, Jett carried off batting honors, with two hits to his credit, and Buchanan being the only comrade to get a hit.

All members of the Gibraltar played well, but the best teams at times meet defeat, but when a bunch of lads make a hard fight to win like they did in yesterday's contest they are deserving of praise for their courage and the Cardinals lift their caps to them for being true sportsmen.

If possible the game scheduled for Sunday, May 2, will be called at 2:30 p. m. sharp.

END OF STORMY MARRIED LIFE

Man Shoots Wife and Later Commits Suicide

WED THREE MONTHS

Would-be Murderer and Suicide Joined Sunday School Class in Richmond Yesterday Morning

Richmond, April 26.—Because she refused a reconciliation after a five days' separation, Charles Thacker, aged 45, of 1310 Beverly Street, shot and probably fatally wounded his bride of three months, in front of their home at 8.45 o'clock last night and ended his life with the same weapon a few minutes later.

The tragedy occurred while Mrs. Thacker was returning from church. She was intercepted by her husband and after a brief conversation Thacker opened fire after she refused point-blank to return to him. One shot pierced her head, the second penetrated her chest and twenty feet down the street Thacker put the gun to his head and pulled the trigger. The wounded woman was taken to the Virginia Hospital where her chance for recovery was reported early this morning to be slight.

The tragedy is said to have been the culmination of three months of stormy married life. Thacker had been married before. Mrs. Thacker was the widow of Charles Keith, a former policeman. Her age is 33, and her maiden name was Alene Willis. Her nearest relative, a brother, R. C. Willis, lives at 3302 West Leigh Street

For about seven years Thacker was employed in the Riverview Cemetery, but recently took a position at the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomas Railroad shops. Neighbors said that he was a carpenter, although his wife stated at the hospital that he was a painter.

Yesterday morning he went to the Randolph Street Baptist Church and joined a class in Sunday School.

The body of the dead man was turned over to the Bliy undertaking establishment by Detectives R. L. Bryant and G. W. Thurman.

LATE SIR MOSES EZEKIEL

Remains of Noted Scuptor Will Rest at Arlington

Richmond, April 26.—Plans are being perfected by relatives and executors of the estate of Sir Moses Ezekiel, noted sculptor, to have his body brought from Rome, Italy, It was placed in a mausoleum three years ago, to Arlington National cemetery, near Washington, for final interment. Henry C. Ezekiel, Avondale, a brother announced yesterday.

Permission to remove the body to Arlington cemetery was granted three years ago when Sir Moses Ezekiel died in Rome, but because of the dangers incident to the trip at that time this was deferred. Recently Henry C. Ezekiel took up the matter up with Secretary of War Baker and obtained a renewal of the burial permit. The executors are arranging to have the body reach Arlington cemetery in June.

United Daughters of the Confederacy, the Arlington National Memorial association and the Virginia Military Institute, of which Sir Moses was a graduate, will be represented at the services.

It is fitting that the noted sculptor should be buried at Arlington, for the Confederate monument in that cemetery was one of his chief works. His body is at present in the mausoleum of the Adolfo De Bosis family in Rome the design of which was executed by him.

Sir Moses Ezekiel was the first foreigner to win the prize of Rome at Berlin in 1873. He was decorated by the emperor of Germany with the cross of merit and art and has received wide recognition of his ability as a sculptor. He was the recipient of gold and silver medals and was a member of various academies.

The King of Italy gave to him the cross of 'officer of the crown of Italy,' and the senate of the Royal Academy publicly crowned one of his statues with a laurel wreath and awarded to him "1,500 thalers" a year for two years' residence at Rome.

His studio was in a building furnished him by the city of Rome. He created many masterpieces, some of royalty, and his work is on exhibition in several countries.

A remarkable marble bust designed by Sir Moses Ezekiel stands in the main lobby of the Cincinnati Public library.

He was a warm personal friend of many prominent persons, one of whom was Thomas Nelson Page.

I. O. O. F. ANNIVERSARY

Impressive Service in Pohick Church for Accotink Lodge and Friends

Surrounded by a historic setting of great significance, the one hundredth anniversary of Odd Fellowship in America was fittingly observed yesterday afternoon in old historic Pohick Church. Rev. Dr. John Lee Allison, Grand Chaplain, delivered the sermon. His text was Isaiah 32:2. "A man shall be as a hiding place from the winds, as the shadow of a great rock in a weary land." His theme was the glory and ministry of ideal manhood. He said the prophet in thought leaped from dead rocks to living men, and as in the desert the rocks afford shelter and protection, and here is found the oasis, so the strong man shelters the weak, and blesses humanity, by his ministry.

The speaker referred in a splendid way to the principles of the order in helping the needy.

Rev. Edgar Carpenter and the pastor of Pohick Church, Rev. E. W. Mellichamp, assisted in the service.

Many engineers have stated that tests show other ores in the Blue Ridge Range in that region.

THE RICHMOND DISASTER

Tomorrow will be the fiftieth anniversary of one of the most serious catastrophies which ever occurred in the Old Dominion. On April 27, 1870, a gallery in the Capitol in Richmond, which was densely crowded with spectators, fell and in its collapse carried away the floor of a portion of the building, burying in dust and debris hundreds of persons, many of whom were prominent in the affairs of the state at that time. The accident sent huge clouds of dust from the windows of the State Capitol, causing many to suppose a fire had suddenly broken out. An alarm was sounded and the department responded, when it was found that a disaster more serious than a fire had occurred. The dead were extricated and laid upon the sward and the injured taken to hospitals.

T. A. Brewis, a prominent business man of this city at that time, was killed outright, a huge splinter having been forced through his jugular vein. The late George W. Brent, an Alexandrian and a prominent lawyer of his day, had one of his legs broken, and other residents of this city were more or less hurt. The late General M. D. Corse, of this city, went down in the crash, but escaped uninjured. Several members of both branches of the Legislature were among the killed, as were news paper reporters who were in the Capitol at the time.

Shortly before noon a telegraph message was received here from Richmond telling of the disaster. No details were given in the laconic message. Edgar Snowden, Jr., one of the editors of the Gazette, was the Senator from this district at the time, and Reuben Johnston and George L. Seaston, the last named colored, were the delegates from Alexandria city and county.

Their relatives and friends suffered great anxiety until it was learned that the Alexandrians were safe.

This awful accident occurred while the mayoralty contest between Henry K. Ellyson and George Chahoon both claiming to be executives of Richmond, was in progress of the federal court. The legislature was in session at the time, and there were many visitors in the house.

VIRGINIA ARTIST DEAD

Richard N. Brooke, vice principal of the School of Art at the Corcoran Art Gallery, Washington, and for 15 years president of the Society of Washington Artists, died yesterday at the home of his niece, Mrs. Morton G. Douglas, in Warrenton. He was 72 years old.

Mr. Brooke had been connected with the Corcoran Art Gallery for 25 years. Several of his paintings have been placed in the gallery, the most notable being the "Pastoral Visit," which received high praise from visiting critics and will be remembered by the many Alexandrians who have studied the picture.

The conception takes us back to Virginia in bygone years. The pastor, a tall well-disposed specimen of the better class of the African race is an ideal representation of the colored preacher of a rural church anterior to the appearance of John Brown in the Old Dominion. He has entered the lowly cabin of one of his parishioners, a negro farm laborer of the old school, who has left the field to meet his pastor. He is represented as smiling good-naturally while his wife, surrounded by her children, is engaged in preparing an humble repast for the visitor. The best of humor is apparent, the guest and entertainers being reflexes of the whites in whose homes they had been bred. A third of a century or more has passed since we first encountered this picture, and in subsequent visits to the Corcoran Art Gallery we have almost invariably sought and enjoyed it as greatly as when first encountered.

GREAT NATIONAL CONCERN

An editorial in the Philadelphia North American under the caption, "The Warning of Rome's Fall," is suggestive.

This editorial points out that "the future of this nation is gravely menaced by a steadily diminishing agricultural productivity—that is to say, by a dwindling food supply. That decline is due to excessive development of our industrial capacity; and for the injurious reaction upon agriculture the policies of both labor and capital are responsible.

The North American quotes at some length Guglielmo Ferrero, who is one of the most eminent of living historians, as follows: "The high cost of living today is a repetition of history. The first grave symptom is that very excess of urbanism which was the ruin of Rome. Modern costliness is born from the over development of cities. Too many men and too much capital are these agglomerated to add to industries and extravagance. The natural consequence of this disproportion is easy to understand. The cities enlarge, industries grow in number and size; luxuries and the wants of the many crowded there mutiply. But the productiveness of the land does not keep pace with all this. In no country is this condition more apparent than in the United States. Why? Because in America the disproportion between the progress of the fields and that of the cities, between that of industries and that of agriculture, is still greater than in Europe, where populations live habituated for centuries to country life."

The North American concludes its editorial with a further quotation from Ferrero: "The excesses of urbanism, the cause of the splendor and apparent wealth, converted them selves into a dissolvent force that precipitated into chaos the brilliant world which that force had once produced."

WHICH SHALL WE HAVE?

In a letter to the Manufacturers Record, Mr. W. M. McCormick, a leading manufacturer and banker of Baltimore, writing on the food situation and the difficulties of farm work, says:

"Cannot something be done to start a movement to bring in 50,000 or 100,000 Chinese laborers? If this is not done, and done promptly, I don't know where we will be this fall.

"The farmers throughout Virginia and Maryland, also up in Pennsylvania, are sorely pressed for labor, and I am told that on one of the biggest farms in my old county (Loudoun) there are several hundred acres of corn yet unshucked, already in the field, and they cannot get labor under $4.50 a day to do this work, and even at this price they can seldom get help.

"We are simply building a home to go up in smoke if this condition continues much longer, and unless we bring in a large number of Mexicans to import other foreign labor, I don't know what we will do."

Mr. McCormick's statement that there are several hundred acres of corn yet standing in the shocks in one county of Virginia because labor cannot be had to shuck the corn, merely serves to throw a little sidelight upon the farm situation in the entire country. The portion of Virginia to which he refers where farm labor cannot be had for $4.50 a day is not unlike a large part of the entire country. A few weeks ago we published a statement from a Texas farmer who has a thousand acre farm of rich land, in which he said that the entire farm would be allowed to lay fallow this year, because labor could not be had at a price which would permit any profit, and that he and his son who had operated the farm would this year turn their attention to road building, in which they could make far more money than they could in cultivating their farm. That letter was merely typical of others that are constantly coming from all parts of the country. The farm situation is an extremely acute one. The food supply of the nation is in danger.

MORSE CHARGES DENIED

Concern Overpaid, Ship Board Contends.

Washington, April 26.—Claims of the C. W. Morse Company that failure of the Shipping Board to pay for the construction of ships had resulted in a receivership for the Groton Iron Works, of Connecticut, were denied before a House investigating committee Saturday by W. W. Nottingham, assistant counsel for the board.

The Morse Company was overpaid approximately $1,000,000 advance money, the witness said, adding that contract books of the Groton plant has disappeared and that no effort had been made to recover them. Mr. Nottingham said the Morse Co., representatives had declared the books contained "old records."

Robert A. Dean, general counsel of the board, testified that several efforts had been made to lift the receivership and that William G. McAdoo had appeared before the board last fall in behalf of the Morse Company. On March 30, he said, the board had agreed to advance $250,000 to the Groton Iron Works to finance ships under construction, but this decision was reversed yesterday. Receivers will be reinstated and construction begun again, he said.

BLIZZARD IN MAY

Retired Prophet Takes Fling at Weather Just for the Fun of it, And Predicts Snow Next

East Orange, April 25.—A May Blizzard!

Don't put your winter overcoat and flannels in the cedar chest, with the w. k. mothballs sprinkled through their folds, for on May 10 you are going to need them, and maybe your earmuffs, too, according to "Farmer" Dunn, veteran retired weather forecaster for Uncle Sam. "Farmer" Dunn no longer gets paid for telling folks when to carry umbrellas and wear galoshes and when to carry sunshades, but occasionally he still likes to have a shot at the weather, if only to keep from growing rusty at the game.

"Farmer" Dunn says that old man winter isn't so dead as he is believed to be, and that on May 10 he will come galloping back to blow chill blasts down people's spines and set them shivering. There will be snow on that day just as sure as guns if it chances to be cloudy, says "Farmer" Dunn.

A Woman Asks:-

"Can I, at my age, 49, suffering from kidney and bladder trouble, burning pains after urinating and pain in my hips, painful swellings for 6 years, be cured by your method? I am a graduate nurse from one of the large Chicago Hospitals, have tried many good doctors, and many drugs and serums with nothing but temporary relief, I am awfully discouraged—

Answer:—This woman was under my care about three months and the cause of her trouble was entirely removed and she grew very strong and healthy, when your brain impulse, like an electric current, is made to pass freely all over your body, to heart, lungs, liver, stomach, kidneys etc., as well as through all your muscles you can not be sick, nature cures you. I cure nothing.

CHURCH THANKS EX-KAISER

Synod at Berlin Pays Tribute to Wilhelm's Christian Spirit

Berlin, April 26.—A vote of thanks to former Emperor William as the "last temporal head of the Protestant State Church," was given at the closing session of the annual general synod. The synod also paid a tribute to the former monarch and his consort for having "in many ways testified to their practical Christian spirit by works of love toward their brethren."

The synod adopted a resolution to the effect that the future path of the church lay in the direction of a state free church embracing all the German peoples. It added that while the church would welcome within its fold adherents of all political parties, it would itself avoid all politics.

COMETS SCATTER GERMS

Some scientists claim that comets sprinkle the earth with disease germs. They argue that if the majority of comets are fragments of worlds torn apart, as they believe, organisms or disease germs would be carried with the debris. In cold spaces they would remain dormant, but when projected into the higher temperature surrounding the earth, they would again become active and dangerous to humanity.

As proof, they point to the fact that the world-wide epidemic of influenza began immediately after the appearance of Halley's comet, through the tail of which many believed the earth passed.

Blister rust on white pine trees will not spread from one diseased tree to a healthy tree without the presence of currant or gooseberry bushes.

AVARICE IN COTTON

The American Cotton Association meeting in Montgomery, Ala., has adopted resolutions to the effect that the price of cotton be set at not less than 60 cents a pound, as the minimum for middling grade. The present price is about 40 cents.

This is a demand for an increase of 50 per cent. It proposes a readvance equal to almost twice the old price of years before the world war. It was the rule then, rather than the exception, that cotton should drop below 10 cents a pound, at some time in the year.

The present price is more than three times the average price of the period before the war. If the plans of the cotton growers can be carried out the market will be about five times as high as it used to be.

Consider that fact in comparison with other price changes. The best authorities say that the average rise in the whole price level has been about 150 per cent, though they calculate the increase in the cost of living at not more than 85 or 87 per cent, because the advance in prices has not been so great in articles of the largest consumption as it has been in many comparatively unimportant commodities. The increase in the cost of cotton has been about 240 per cent, and now the planters are demanding that it shall be made not less than 400 per cent.

There is no more glaring instance of rapacity than this, especially in dealing with one of the great essential staples of industry. There is no worse instance of greed in forcing up the cost of a necessary product which the whole nation uses and depends upon in its daily life.

HUNGER STRIKE ON

One Released From London Prison in State of Collapse

London, April 26.—Among the 150 Irish prisoners in Wormwood Scrubbs Prison a large number have been on hunger strike since Wednesday as a protest against detention without charge or trial. One of the men was released unconditionally Friday night in a state of collapse.

The London branches of the Irish Self-determination League yesterday hastily organized a big demonstration outside the prison. Thousands responded and last night indulged in manifestations similar to those recently carried out at Mount Joy Prison, Dublin. The crowd sang patriotic songs and burned flares.

Uruguay Newspaper Man Demands Fight Take Place in Foreign Land

Montevideo, April 26.—The duel to which President Baltasar Brum challenged Dr. Rodriguez Larreta, director of El Dia, following attacks in that newspaper against the President in connection with his lecture of Wednesday in inter-American affairs before the students of the University of Montevideo, probably will be fought.

Dr. Larreta was quoted Saturday as saying that he would fight only if the duel were held in a foreign country, alleging that there would be trouble with the police if President Brum should be wounded in a duel in Montevideo. It was learned that President Brum will not send his seconds to Dr. Larreta again.

FALLEN GOMPERS DEBATE

Governor May Meet Leader on Industrial Court Question

New York, April 26.—Governor Henry J. Allen, of Kansas, tonight expressed his willingness to meet Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, in a debate on the merits of the Kansas Court of Industrial Relations. Although it had been reported that he had accepted a challenge to meet Mr. Gompers in a debate, Governor Allen said no such challenge has yet been received by him.

The Governor said he had received a challenge from a representative of the American Federation of Labor, Clarence Darrow, a well-known lawyer, in a debate, but that he declined that challenge and then suggested a meeting with Mr. Gompers.

New York, April 26.—More than 2,000 local railroad workers were expelled yesterday from the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen for, past they have taken in the unauthorized strike in this district, according to Edward McHugh, chairman of the strikers' executive committee. The charters of nine local unions were revoked, he said. The announcement was made at a meeting in Jersey City, attended by men employed in a large assortment of crafts and was received with [illegible] cheers and jeers.

T. E. Brighten Up Alexandria

What a wonderful city we would have if every surface everywhere were brightened up with paints and varnishes! Think of the saving; the added comfort, cleanliness and beauty; increased values. But comfort, cleanliness, beauty and increased values are only by-products. The real, the greatest return on your paint investment is protection; protection against hot Summer suns and cold Wintry blasts. Weather destroys more houses each year than fire or flood. Government figures show one house out of four destroyed every year by decay through ravages of weather. How important it is, then, that we insure our own homes against this insidious destroyer, decay, by proper painting. Sherwin-Williams Paints and Varnishes are your best insurance policy.

Brightening Up our city is not a big undertaking, if every property owner does his little part. Paint your house inside and out; protect and beautify every surface in and around your home. It will benefit the city, the neighborhood, and most of all, it will benefit you. There is a Sherwin-Williams Paint, Stain, Varnish or Enamel for every surface that requires protecting or beautifying. No matter what you want to finish, from painting your house to touching up a piece of furniture, we can supply you with just the right finish to produce the most lasting, beautiful and satisfactory results.

Bring your brighten up problems to us—we will gladly solve them for you.

VIRGINIA NEWS

Philip K. Bauman, past grand master of Masons in Virginia, died at his home, in Fredericksburg Saturday at the age of 70.

An anti-soft drink club has been organized in Lebanon, according to advices received at Bristol. This club was organized at a mass meeting of citizens of that town and the members are said to be pledged not to patronize any soda fountain or soft drink establishment until the prices come down.

Discovery that souvenir postal cards sold at the home of Washington at Mount Vernon, bore the inscription, "Made in Germany," caused a furore Saturday at the final session of the annual continental congress of the Daughters of the American Revolution. Protests of delegates from the floor were checked by assurances of Mrs. George Thacher Guernsey that such cards would not be sold to tourists in the future.

Leonard H. W. Elosser, aged 72, a native of Germany, but for many years a resident of Frederick county, committed suicide at Winchester by shooting himself in the head with a shotgun, which he exploded by means of a ramrod. Mr. Elosser had been in ill health for some time, and despondency over his condition was assigned as a reason for his action. Mr. Elosser was an uncle of Grace Elosser, and his tragic end recalls the nation wide excitement caused by the murder of Miss Elosser some years ago, when she and her fiance, Charles Twigg, were found poisoned in the Elosser home in Cumberland, Md.

Westmoreland Davis, Governor of Virginia, was yesterday elected delegate at large from Loudoun County to the Democratic State Convention at Roanoke, in June, and was indorsed for delegate from Loudoun County to the National Democratic Convention at San Francisco, Cal., in June. The Loudoun delegation was instructed to exert its endeavors to bring about the nomination by the Democratic party of Governor Davis as a candidate for the presidency of the United States.

Mob violence was threatened at Norton yesterday when nearly 1,000 indignant citizens of that place gathered at the court house and demanded Policemen Worley Wells and Harvey Agee, who are charged with having caused the death of Armos Cowden, a Wise county mailcarrier, late Saturday night. Information received by the two officers that an escaped convict from Wise county jail was heading for Norton is said to have caused them to halt the mailcarrier. Cowden is reported to have ignored the officers, probably through his deafness, and the officers fired. An appeal addressed to the crowd by Commonwealth's Attorney McCorkle dispersed them. The two officers were released on bond of $5,000 each.

Washington, April 24.—The House bill increasing pensions of veterans of the War between the States to $50 monthly and those of the widows of veterans to $30 monthly was passed yesterday by the Senate, and now goes to conference. The increases were provided to meet the rising costs of living.

Senate amendments make the increases applicable to veterans of the Mexican War, who number 215, and widows of veterans, who number 1,576, and also to the widows of veterans of the War of 1812, of whom 73 are living.

Besides the general pension of $50 monthly the bill provides pensions up to $90 monthly for disabled veterans

CIGAR EXPLODES

South Carolina Railroad Commission Chairman Buys Loaded 'Smoke'

Anderson ,S. C. April 24.—Chairman Frank Sehaly, of South Carolina railroad commission, is quoted in dispatches received here as stating that cigar which he purchased at Lexington, S. C., and attempted to smoke, exploded soon after lighting, sending a bullet from a 22-calibre catridge imbedded in the cigar into the face of a negro girl nearby.

Detroit Police Hunt Strange Man Seen With Telephone Operator

Pointiac ,Mich., April 26.—The police and a detail from the Detroit detective bureau were last night engaged in the investigation of the death early today of Miss Vera Schneider, a telephone supervisor, whose body was found on the porch of a dwelling in one of the city's best residential sections.

The girl, 20 years old, and whose home was at Elkton, Mich., had been choked to death. The ground surrounding the porch was torn up in places, indicating a struggle.

Miss Schneider, according to some of her friends, worked until last Saturday night and was seen in the company of a strange man about midnight.

SEVERE ARRAIGNMENT

Senator Capper Calls Captain Kidd Saint Beside Sugar Profiteer

Washington, April 25.—In his sweeping indictment of sugar profiteers in the Senate Saturday Senator Capper of Kansas, said:

"For years the sugar interests have annually and shamelessly and openly robbed American housewives during the canning season. They have, with their extortionate charges as regularly blighted the poor family's only hope of putting up and storing away a cheap and wholesome suply of fruits and vegetables for winter. Every principle of healthful living demands just these things in the family diet. But the sugar trust is allowed to prey on the health and welfare of this nation every year in the canning season that it may enrich itself further by profits running high in the hundreds of millions. The people are helpless; there is no feal substitute for sugar. It is piracy so colossal and so criminal that Captain Kidd and all the famous pirates of history become Sunday school characters by comparison. How long is this government going to stand for it?"

"OVERALL" WEDDNG

New York , April 26.—Profiteers did not profit at the "overall" wedding Saturday in the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel of Miss Gertrude Reinhardt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Reinhardt, of Brooklyn, to W. Ramsay Frederick, of Pittsburgh. The bride was attired in what she described as an 'overall-jumper" suit. In place of the customary bridal white, she wore plain blue gingham, prettily made, to be sure, but undeniably gingham. Her bridal bouquet was of daisies. The bridal outfit cost a shade over $4. A blue-checked gingham dress was worn by her attendant, Miss Frances Grodsky, of Hempstead, L. I. The groom, his best man, J. A. Reinhardt, brother of the bride, and the officiating clergyman, the Rev. W. D. Tucker, pastor of St. Andrew's M. E. Church, Brooklyn, were dressed in blue denim suits.

The reception following the wedding was attended by guests attired in overalls, denim and gingham creations.

GIRL FOUND SLAIN

Warren O., April 25.—With a young man in custody, police are investigating the mysterious death of Olive Thompson, 16-year-old school girl, whose body was found at her home late yesterday with a bullet in the spine.

Officials are unable to determine whether she met death at her own hands or was the victim of another's bullet. The young man who is held was seen to enter the house a few hours before the body was found, but he denies any knowledge of the shooting. The girl's parents were away at the time of the shooting.

San Remo, April 26.—In placing Palestine uner a British mandate the Supreme Council established within the ancient limits of Holy Land what is called "the national home of the Jews."

Terms of the mandate protect the national rights of Jewish citizens of other countries. That is to say, a Jew of American, British, French or other nationality, may retain his nationality, although he is also a citizen of the State of Palestine.

The rights of Arabs also are protected, there being 600,000 in Palestine and 100,000 Jews.

BOYCOTT OF CANDY URGED

Commissioner O'Malley Declares Confection Manufacturers Hold Valued Sweet

New York, April 26.—A month's boycott of candy, soda water, and pastry was advocated today by Edwin J. O'Malley, city commissioner of public markets, to relieve the sugar shortage and bring down prices.

He said lack of sugar for home consumption was due primarily to enormous consumption by manufacturers who had obtained control of the supply. A boycott, he contended, would make them release part of their holdings for public purchase.

To show alleged profits in candy, he quoted from a circular sent out by a corporation that is selling stock. The circular said that chocolates sold at 80 cents to $1 a pound and the cost of production was a little more than 22 cents. "There is plenty of sugar," Mr. O'Malley added, "but under a system of unregulated private control of the necessities of life, the public markets were stripped bare of sugar."

Mr. O'Malley yesterday received a letter from Secretary Tumulty, saying he would bring to the attention of President Wilson immediately, Mr. O'Malley's request that a board be appointed to fix the price of sugar and regulate the distribution.

FOOD LAW VIOLATORS

Adulteration False Labels and Poor Quality Brings 49 Prosecutions

Washington, D. C., April 26.—Results attending prosecutions of offenders against the pure food law show that 49 out of 50 prosecutions have been won by the Department of Agriculture, the Bureau of Chemistry announced yesterday.

Ten actions were phrased on adulteration of tomato products, and use by packers of tomatoes unfit for food. Eleven actions were on misbranding stock feed made from cottonseed meal. Canned salmon was the basis of four seizures because of spoilage. Other prosecutions involved a shipment of sardines, and three shipments of adulterated olive oil. An artificial vinegar labeled cider vinegar cost the shipper a $400 fine. One shipper, charged with watering milk, was fined $200. In another case a shipment of gelatin was found to contain glue, copper and zinc. Fines of from $10 to $100 weer imposed in the various cases involving adulteration.

THIEVES RANSACK HOMES

Residences Burglarized While Families Sleep

Richmond, April 26.—Burglars visited two homes in the fashionable West End early yesterday morning and made away with jewelry and other valuables worth between $2,500 and $3,000. Jewelry valued at more than $75,000 was overlooked. In one instance the robbers were detected as they were making their getaway.

The homes visited were those of Henry E. Baskerville, 310 South Boulevard, member of the firm of architects of Baskerville and Lambert, with offices in the Travelers' Building, and Henry W. Rountree, Sr., 907 Park Avenue, president of the Rountree Corporation.

The robberies occurred between the hours of 2 and 4:30 o'clock, and both depredations are believed to have been perpetrated by the same miscreants.

Popular Leader of Peacetime Army

MISS EVANGELINE C. BOOTH,
Commander of the Salvation Army in the United States.

WITH the $14,000,000 fund generously contributed by the country to the Salvation Army last May all but exhausted through the Army's unparalleled year of activities and service throughout the country, Commander Miss Booth is now marshaling her forces for the organization's second nation-wide Home Service Appeal to be held May 10 to 20. "It makes me extremely happy to report, even before the full statistics of the year's work are in hand," the Commander stated in New York recently, "that never before in the history of the organization in this country has the Salvation Army been able to accomplish so much for the poor, the distressed, the sick, the unfortunate and the erring.

"All this is because of the magnificent way America has supported our efforts. We are deeply thankful to God and country for the opportunities of Christian and humanitarian service that have been afforded us during the last few months. Very shortly, now, we shall give an accounting of our trusteeship, and soon thereafter we plan to go to the country again for the encouragement and funds with which to maintain our many vital activities throughout another twelvemonth."

MENTIONED FOR SUFFRAGAN

Former Coadjutor of Virginia Episcopal Diocese May be Assistant to Bishop Burch

Richmond, April 26.—Bishop Beverley S. Lloyd, formerly coadjutor bishop of Virginia, has become suffragan bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Diocese of New York, it is learned here. Bishop Lloyd is in the city to attend the annual convention meeting in Synod Hall, New York City, May 10, 11 and 12.

Bishop Lloyd left Virginia in 1919 to become president of the Episcopal board of missions, with headquarters at 281 Fourth Avenue, New York City, to which office he was elected at the triennial convention of the Episcopal Church following his election as coadjutor bishop of Virginia. He is 63 years old and a native of the Old Dominion.

It is possible that Bishop Burch may ask for a coadjutor and in this event an election cannot be held until next fall. A suffragan is an assistant bishop who has no right to succession. A coadjutor is an assistant bishop who succeeds on the death or resignation of the bishop.

Bishop Lloyd is a brother of Mrs. George Uhler, of this city.

GRAND THEATRE

When Thomas H. Ince produced "'Flare up' Sal," the Paramount picture now showing at the Grand Theatre, he advertised for men with whiskers, to take supernumerary parts as miners and prospectors of the days of the gold rush in California. The advertisement brought to the Ince-Paramount studio the greatest collection of facially camouflaged "types" in its history. Many of the applicants were actual miners of the days of '49. These last especially enjoyed the rehearsals. Miss Dalton herself, a great student of the history and lover of stories of these days, put even more than her usual enthusiasm into her work as did the excellent cast including Thurston Hall, William Conklin and others. Also Chapter 10 "Trail of the Octopus."

"I'D NOT BE A SISSY CHURCH"

Rector at Annual Meeting Says Church Should Be Militant

Rev. Robert E. Lee Hill, rector of St. James Methodist Episcopal church, yesterday morning was emphatically in his "fighting clothes"—and literally "at it," but very definitely overhauls, for he launched a terrific broadside against social and industrial evils, from the card party to profane picture shows and prohibition.

Local law enforcement received a resounding wallop and the remedy for social and economic evils was put squarely up to the Christian citizenship.

"I do not believe in a sissy church," he vociferously exclaimed. "The church should be actively aggressive—actually militant, and courageously fight the wiles of the devil, who is not merely an influence, as some folks mistakenly supose, but a distinct personality of the malignest and subtlest influence."

Just here the earnest preacher expressed his belief that much of the Christian passiveness is due to swerving from the old faith in a personal devil and in eternal punishment and quoted an eminent divine as favoring an addition to the Apostle's Creed embracing, "I believe in the devil."

The church has acquiesced in the picture show and now it is up to the church to demand that indecent and immorally suggestive films be kept from the screen. If civic officials shy at enforcing laws, depose them and put in officials who will be responsive to duty. Mental condemnation of wrongs is of no avail unless it is put into practical effort.

LOVER TURNS BURGLAR

Rochester, N. Y., April 26.—Jilted by Miss Rose Lipshitz, to whom he had been engaged, Abraham Arthur Berman, twenty-eight entered her bed room while she was asleep early to recover some of his gifts—especially a fur coat. He gained the room through a window and carried with him a revolver and flashlight.

The girl was awakened by the light as Berman rummaged for the coat and his other gifts. Believing burglars were in the house, she screamed and her father, Harris Lipschitz, entered and grappled with the intruder.

Berman tried to escape though the window but got jammed and his pistol was discharged in the struggle with the girl's father, who received the bullet in his hand. Berman, whose love affairs have led him into trouble before, was arrested.

White pine trees once infested with blister rust have never been known to recover.
